(U) American Canyon – Man Arrested for Dropping Illegal Fireworks from Drone

(U) A man has been arrested for dropping ignited M-80 type explosive devices from his drone in California. According to the authorities, the culprit has been issued a misdemeanor citation for dangerous fireworks, and his drone confiscated for evidence. George Wise, 55, was arrested on 3 June after officers from the American Canyon Police Department (ACPD) traced a drone suspected of igniting illegal fireworks back to his house on Kilpatrick Street. The police said they had received many complaints of “large booms” possibly associated with illegal fireworks over the last few weeks. While responding to a similar complaint on 3 June at around 12:30 a.m., officers from the ACPD observed an airborne drone in the area and saw fireworks being ignited from it. Wise was arrested after he admitted to igniting M-80 type explosive devices from the drone.

(U) Wisconsin – Man Accused of Killing Wisconsin Judge Dies in Hospital

(U) New Lisbon – A man accused of fatally shooting a retired Wisconsin judge and who had a list that included prominent national political figures died in a hospital, a state official said Tuesday. Douglas Uhde, 56, shot former Juneau County Circuit Judge John Roemer in Roemer's home in New Lisbon on Friday before shooting himself, authorities said. He was taken to a hospital where he had been on life support. The agency said that Uhde was declared brain-dead on Saturday morning and his body remained on life support until Tuesday morning to allow for organ donation. Uhde had an extensive criminal and prison record dating back at least two decades, including a case when he was sentenced by Roemer to six-years in prison on weapons charges. He was released from his last prison stint in April 2020.

(U) Germany – One Person Dead, Six Injured After Car Driven into Crowd

(U) Berlin – A car drove into a crowd of people in a busy shopping district in western Berlin on Wednesday, killing at least one woman and leaving six others with life-threatening injuries, authorities said. More than a dozen people in total were injured when the driver ploughed into people on Kurfuerstendamm avenue, near the landmark Kaiser Wilhelm Memorial Church, at around 10:30 a.m. local time, according to the German capital's police and fire department. After slamming into the crowd, the small silver Renault careened toward Tauentzienstrasse, a tree-lined street popular with tourists, before crashing through a glass shop window. The driver, a 29-year-old German-Armenian national, was detained at the scene and is being questioned. Media reports indicate that police have found a confession letter within the vehicle.
